ROW| Missing offerings claim puts focus on temple donations

Ayodhya row deepens as Ram Shilas go 'missing'

Online Report
AYODHYA

Fresh allegations that around 1,000 gold, silver and diamond-studded Shri Ram Shilas donated during the Ram Temple movement have gone missing have added a new dimension to the Ayodhya temple donation controversy, even as a Special Investigation Team (SIT) stepped up its probe by questioning temple staff and reviewing security arrangements. FIRs are likely to be registered soon.

The allegations were made by former temple accounts incharge Mahipal Singh and have widened an inquiry that initially focused on the suspected disappearance of cash donations.

What are Shri Ram Shilas?

The Shri Ram Shilas are symbolic offerings linked to the Ram Janmabhoomi movement. They were collected by the Vishva Hindu Parishad during a nationwide campaign between 1987 and 1989 ahead of the shilanyas, or foundation-laying ceremony, in Ayodhya in November 1989.

Devotees from more than two lakh villages across India, along with members of the Indian diaspora, contributed the bricks, many inscribed with "Shri Ram" in different Indian languages.

While most were consecrated bricks, some affluent devotees and organisations donated specially crafted gold, silver and gem-studded shilas, making them valuable religious artefacts. Among those reportedly unaccounted for are a gold-plated Shri Ram Shila donated from Mauritius and a diamond-studded shila gifted by a Mumbai businessman.

Beyond their monetary value, the shilas hold immense historical and emotional significance as symbols of mass participation in the Ram Temple movement, which culminated in the construction of the temple in Ayodhya.

SIT expands probe

The allegations have surfaced while a three-member SIT, constituted by the Uttar Pradesh government on the directions of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, is investigating alleged irregularities in temple donations.

On Tuesday, the panel questioned temple employees and officials behind closed doors and examined procedures related to the collection, counting and safekeeping of devotees' offerings.

White Paper: Vijay govt pegs TN debt burden at ₹10 lakh crore

N Chithra
CHENNAI

Tamil Nadu Finance Minister N Marie Wilson on Tuesday released a white paper on the state's finances, targeting the previous DMK regime over a range of metrics and asserted that the state's debt burden now stood at a whopping ₹10 lakh crore.

Unlike States such as Maharashtra, Karnataka and Gujarat, Tamil Nadu failed to consolidate its fiscal position in the post-COVID era.

The white paper, whose central focus is the five-year post-COVID window from 2021-22 to 2025-26, said during the post-pandemic recovery period, which created the conditions for fiscal consolidation, Tamil Nadu's traditional peers Karnataka, Maharashtra and Gujarat used those conditions to restore their fiscal positions. But during this period the State's own indicators "moved in the opposite direction".

"While the peer States maintain an Interest Payments Total Revenue Receipts at a lower level, Tamil Nadu's interest burden is highest among the peers, close to two times that of Gujarat and Maharashtra," the paper said.

Overall, Tamil Nadu's public finances have deteriorated sharply over the past five years, with the State's debt burden doubling to ₹10 lakh crore and fiscal stress becoming increasingly structural rather than cyclical. Combined with guarantees and losses of State-owned enterprises, particularly in the power and transport sectors, Tamil Nadu's total fiscal exposure is estimated at more than ₹13 lakh crore.

Ahead of the re-NEET examination scheduled for June 21, an 18-year-old student from Rajasthan's Alwar district allegedly died by suicide in Delhi, where she was preparing for the medical entrance test with her siblings. Reenu Meena, a resident of Bhanokhar village in Kathumar, was living with her siblings in a flat near Palam in Delhi.

The deceased has been identified as 19-year-old Anu Keerthana, who had purportedly reattempted the NEET-UG exam this year – which was later cancelled – after being allotted an undesired branch in 2025. She allegedly consumed poison and died. This came just days ahead of the scheduled re-examination for the 2026 NEET-UG, which was cancelled by the National Testing Agency (NTA) following allegations of a paper leak.

TELEGRAM MOVES DELHI HC AGAINST GOVT CURBS

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Delhi High Court on Wednesday asked the Centre to file its reply on Telegram's plea against its order temporarily restricting access to the messaging app ahead of the June 21 NEET-UG 2026 re-examination. As the matter came up before a vacation bench of Justice Tejas Karia, Telegram's counsel claimed the curbs were illegal, but Solicitor General (SG) Tushar Mehta defended the government action, saying the platform was being misused and he would reveal "something shocking" tomorrow. The court adjourned the hearing to Thursday and issued notice to the Centre.

During the hearing, Telegram's counsel questioned the legality of the government order blocking the platform. He said that over 150 million users had been affected by the Centre's action on Tuesday.
